Airman Leaderhip School (ALS)

Mineral Wells, Texas – Group VI hosts the weekend-long event.

Designed as encampment preparation, brand-new cadets are trained in the basics of drill, customs and courtesies, how to wear their uniform, and characteristics of good leadership, laying a firm foundation for their CAP career. Four cadets from TX-450 attended: one student and three staff members.

WHY CIVIL AIR PATROL?

Sitting down with the following cadets, they took a quick minute to share their reasons for joining, staying, and what has stuck with them.

C/Capt Z Smith
Duty Position: Executive Officer
Joined Mar 2018

"I was interested in new opportunities, and joined when my family did. I've stayed because I enjoy the community and appreciate the training and new skills that come along with my promotions and participating in the CAP program. Now, I can train and reinforce the program ideals for others"

C/SMSgt R Lavender
Duty Position: Alpha Flight Sergeant
Joined Aug 2023

He followed his two brothers, joining CAP, and stayed "for the great programs and leadership opportunities."

C/Amn Lusher
Joined Dec 2024

"I joined because of my interest in the military, and now I'm interested in exploring CAP's Emergency Services options. I'm looking forward to serving my unit in whatever way is needed."

KUDOS

Cadet Micah Rychlik — our Cadet Commander – has recently achieved the rank of C/Major. Congratulations on all of your hard work and its application on behalf of the unit!

DRILL & CEREMONIES; CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

Cadets are trained in and practice marching, their bearing and customs and courtesies, and in this month's CD lesson, on having and implementing a vision.
