October 21

Sulphur Springs, Texas – Next viewing: in 1300 years!

Seniors and cadets learned about the solar system and viewed Comet C/2025 A6 Lemmon, a long-period comet that won't make another appearance for more than a thousand years, as well as scanned for Orionid meteors.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

At our home airport, cadets ad seniors came out to assist the Lonestar STOL competition, with crowd control.

Check out videos of the event, at the National STOL website, here.

Our squadron teams up with Majors Composite Squadron to assist Community Seeds with their annual fundraiser, in Greenville.

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

October (left): SM Dagenais explored logical fallacies, spotting them and how to respond.

November: SM Dagenais talks about convictions, and their manifestations.

EMERGENCY SERVICES

SM Cunningham presented summaries on IS 100 and 700 curriculum, to help cadets pass their courses with FEMA.

PT Excellence

Congratulations to C/A1C Neal for winning the monthly physical training test!

Uniform Excellence

Congratulations to C/Amn Lusher for winning uniform inspections!

CHANGE OF COMMAND

Squadron Commander Capt Eric Pearson and Cadet Commander C/Capt Micah Rychlik turn over command to C/Capt Joshua Breidenthal, at our annual awards potluck.
